

Jeffrey Minor, AIA

As an architect, Jeffrey is inspired by the opportunity to play a critical role in elevating the daily life and experience of users in the spaces where we work, live, and learn.

Jeffrey is an architect with over 20 years of experience in hospitality, retail, senior living and K-12 projects. As an architect at ARCON Associates he facilitates the design of both small and large PreK-12 education projects, while acting as an advocate and trusted advisor to school districts through all phases of planning and construction. Before joining ARCON, Jeff was a Senior Project Manager at Ethos Workshop in Naperville, managing the design and construction of administration of hospitality and commercial projects throughout the Midwest. His graduate studies at the University of Pennsylvania cultivated a passion for material expression and the incredible potential of digital design and BIM integration. Before joining ARCON and Associates Jeffrey has contributed to several award-winning firms in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York including Ethos Workshop, Perkins Eastman, and Rafael Vinoly Architects.

Jeffrey has been a member of the AIA since 2010 and first joined the Northeast Illinois board as a director in 2018. Between 2018 and 2022 he has served on the AIA Northeast Illinois board of directors as President, Vice President, Secretary, and Director. In 2024 as a member of the AIA Illinois board of directors, he will continue to serve AIA Northeast Illinois as a conduit between the two chapters.
